Mike,

I apologize for the back and forth nature of this bid but, I think we have just about satisfied KDE. They recommended that we come back to you and ask you submit your best and final offer for each item. They also recommended that we delete the pricing for those items where the responses received was extremely different between bidders.

Please complete and return the attached spreadsheet to me as soon as possible. Once I have your best and final offer in hand I will forward a contract to you for your signature.

Thanks again for your patience and understanding.

Sam
